

Short CV-

Prof. Eli Schwartz, MD, DTMH, FISTM

- Full Professor (clinical) at Sackler School of Medicine, Tel Aviv University.
- The Founder and past Director of the Institute of Geographic Medicine & Tropical Diseases at Sheba Medical Center, Tel Hashomer, Israel.
- Head of the Molecular Lab. for Tropical Diseases at Sheba Medical Ctr.

- The President of the Israeli society of Parasitology, & Tropical diseases.
- The past-President of the Asia-Pacific Travel health (APTH) society.

He is deeply Involved in Tropical and Travel Medicine since 1980.

He gained his field experience while working for several years in Asia and Africa.

His main expertise is clinical tropical medicine. He published several books and more than 400 articles and chapters in the medical literature on travel and tropical diseases.

The list of publications can be seen in my Google Scholar site:

http://scholar.google.co.il/citations?hl=iw&user=etBTEPgAAAAJ&view_op=list_works&sortby=pubdate

His last book “Tropical Diseases in Travelers” (Wiley-Blackwell) was published in 2009.

Dr. Schwartz participated in Israeli several missions to regions of the world affected by human and natural disasters, including the earthquake in Nepal 2015.

In 1993 - Open the Inst. of Geographical and Tropical Medicine, Sheba Medical Center, Tel-Hashomer, Israel (Medical director of the Inst). Which is the prominent institute of Tropical Med. In Israel.