

Dr Manisha Saini

Dr. Saini has been a dedicated General Practitioner (GP) in New Zealand since 2000, with a specialized focus on travel medicine since 2008. Originally from India, Dr. Saini migrated to New Zealand in 1994, bringing with them a rich background and a global perspective on healthcare.

Dr. Saini completed their medical degree at Mumbai University, then pursued further training in New Zealand, becoming a fellow of the Royal New Zealand College of General Practitioners. In 2006, they expanded their expertise by completing a postgraduate paper in travel medicine at Otago University.

Travel medicine is a passion for her, as it offers a unique perspective on health and provides an opportunity to engage in both preventive and therapeutic healthcare services in a diverse range of contexts.